

Dave Klein Presented Live Better Community Service Award

[Pepin, WI] – Dave Klein is Pierce Pepin Cooperative Services’ Live Better Community Service Award winner. He received the award and $100 in Visa® gift cards on January 5 for his selfless volunteer work on behalf of the Pepin County community.

Klein has been an active leader in 4H and is involved in coordinating 4H activities in Pepin County. He is also a youth leader and is on the Pepin County leader board. Klein serves on the Pepin County Fair organization committee and is involved in coordinating entertainment, demonstrations and other fair activities.

In addition to his work with the Pepin County Fair and 4H, Klein is involved with Pepin County Dairy Promotion and is actively involved with organizing and promoting the Pepin County Dairy Breakfast. This includes contacting farms to host the breakfast and organizing entertainment and activities for the breakfast.

“Dave is a very positive influence in the community,” said Gerald Drier, Pierce Pepin Cooperative Services board member. “His volunteer activities have an impact on people of all ages and help highlight the best of Pepin County.”

In his spare time, Klein enjoys camping, hunting and fishing with his family. He is a Minnesota Vikings fan and follows the Badgers, as well.

Congratulations, Dave, and thank you for truly making a difference!

Dave Klein is presented the Live Better Community Service Award by Chris Tackmann, Pierce Pepin’s vice president of member and administrative services, for his volunteer work on behalf of the Pepin County community.
