

Mattingly awarded electrical line worker scholarship

Plum City, Wis. [May 11, 2016] – Aaron Mattingly, a senior at Plum City High School, was awarded a $1,000 electrical line worker scholarship from Pierce Pepin Cooperative Services during Plum City High School's awards ceremony on May 4.

To qualify, Mattingly submitted an essay on "Why I want to become a lineman". He is the son of Mark and Diane Mattingly of rural Plum City.

Mattingly has been accepted to the Electrical Power Distribution program at the Chippewa Valley Technical College, Eau Claire, Wis. He is currently on the wait list for this program. Upon completion, Mattingly will be prepared to join the electrical power industry workforce as a safe and knowledgeable apprentice.

Scholarships through Pierce Pepin are funded directly through the Federated Youth Foundation from capital credits unclaimed by Pierce Pepin Cooperative Services members.
